

APPLICANT AND EMPLOYEE PRIVACY NOTICE

India

To view or request the Privacy Policy in another language, please contact the Legal team at legal@anthropic.com. In the event of any discrepancy or conflict between the English version of the Privacy Policy and versions of the Privacy Policy in other languages, the English version will prevail over the other translated versions.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This privacy notice applies to you if you are based in India, and you are:
 - (a) a current or former executive, employee, intern, contractor, consultant or temporary or agency member of staff engaged by us ("Team Members"); or
 - (b) an applicant or prospective Team Member ("Applicants").
- 1.2 This privacy notice sets out how we process data that identifies or is associated with you ("personal information"), and your rights in relation to that information.
- 1.3 This privacy notice is not part of any contract of employment or other contract between you and us.
- 1.4 It is important that you read and understand this notice. If you have any questions or require further information, please contact the Legal team using the contact details in paragraph 3 of this privacy notice.

2. Who Is Responsible For Your Personal Information

- 2.1 The Anthropic group consists of the following entities: Anthropic, PBC, Anthropic Limited, Anthropic Ireland Limited, and Anthropic Switzerland GmbH.
- 2.2 The Anthropic entity that engages you as a Team Member or that you engage with as an Applicant will, together with Anthropic, PBC, be the joint controllers/ fiduciaries of the personal information that we collect and use as set out in this privacy notice. This means that this entity and Anthropic, PBC jointly determine and are responsible for how this personal information is used.
- 2.3 The Anthropic entity that engages you as a Team Member or that you engage with as an Applicant and Anthropic, PBC are, collectively, referred to in this privacy notice as "Anthropic", "we", "our" or "us". We have allocated responsibility for complying with our obligations under applicable data protection law as follows:
 - (a) Information about how we and the entities listed above use your personal data: the Anthropic entity that engages you as a Team Member or that you engage with as an Applicant will provide you with information about how your personal data is used by us as joint controllers/ fiduciaries.
 - (b) Your rights: the Anthropic entity that engages you as a Team Member or that you engage with as an Applicant will serve as the primary contact point for exercising your rights in respect of the personal data we process as joint controllers/ fiduciaries. If you would like to exercise your rights in respect of your personal data that we process jointly, you can do so by contacting us using the details in paragraph 3 below.

- (c) Security: each of us will maintain our own safeguards to ensure that the personal data we process as joint controllers is kept secure.
- (d) Lawfulness: each of us have determined the lawful basis relied on for processing your personal data as joint controllers/ fiduciaries.
- (e) Transfers: each of us have implemented our own safeguards for the transfers of your personal data we undertake, including transfers to jurisdictions outside India.

2.4 Anthropic may also use third-party employers of record and third-party employment agencies to enter into employment contracts with Team Members in certain jurisdictions. If you are employed by a third-party employer of record, or engaged through a third-party employment agency, that employer of record or agency will also be the controller/ fiduciary and responsible for how your personal information is used. You should ensure that you read and understand their privacy notice in addition to this notice, as the way they use your personal information may be different to how Anthropic does.

3. Contact Point For Data Protection Queries

10. Recipients of Personal Information

10.1 We may share your personal information with the following:

Recipient	How they use it
Service providers: we may share your personal information with third party vendors and other service providers that perform services for us or on our behalf, which may include providing mailing or email services, data hosting and record keeping services, and payments processing. Such information may be disclosed to providers of:	These recipients will generally use your personal information as processors only on our instructions. They may also aggregate and anonymise information to monitor the performance of, identify errors in, and improve their services. The lawful basis relied on for such transfers is that the processing is necessary for the relevant service provider's legitimate interests, namely to maintain and improve their services.

• human resources management software and business collaboration tools; • our IT infrastructure and storage; and • salary and benefits payments processing.
Our affiliates: Your personal information may be stored and processed on centralised IT systems that are used by companies that own us or are under the same ownership as us in connection with us.	Our affiliates may access your personal information for centralised HR resource planning and management and to facilitate communication and coordination between group entities. The lawful basis we rely on for sharing your personal information in this way is that it is necessary for our and our affiliates' legitimate interests, namely provision of intragroup services, coordination and resource management.
Advisors: we may share your personal information with our advisors in connection with obtaining professional services such as legal, financial and accountancy services on behalf of Anthropic.	These recipients will use your personal information in order to provide us with legal or financial, accountancy or tax advice. The lawful basis we rely on for such transfers is that the processing is necessary for our legitimate interests, namely obtaining professional services and advice.
Employers of record and agencies: If you are employed by a third-party employer of record, or engaged through a third- party employment agency, we may share your personal data with them for the purposes of administering your employment.	These recipients will use your personal information in accordance with the privacy notices they have provided to you. The lawful basis we rely on for such transfers is that the processing is necessary for our and the relevant third-party agency's legitimate interests, namely managing our contractual relationship and our respective relationships with you.
Purchasers and third parties in connection with a business transaction: your personal information may be disclosed to third parties in connection with a transaction, such as a merger, sale of assets or shares, reorganisation, financing, change of control or acquisition of all or a portion of our business.	These recipients will use your personal information to assess the potential transaction with us. They may also use your personal information to facilitate the integration of our Team Members into their structure in the event of an acquisition. The lawful basis we rely on for such transfers is that the processing is necessary for our and the third party's legitimate interests, namely assessing and executing a potential transaction with us.

Third parties at your request: we may disclose your personal information where you ask us to, such as banks or mortgage providers, insurance and other benefit providers, or other employers if you ask us for a reference from us when you apply for another position.	These recipients will use your personal information as disclosed in their privacy notice. We will only share your personal information in this way to the extent you give us your consent to do so.
Third parties, as necessary in connection with your job role: we may disclose certain personal information, such as your name and contact details, to third parties who may need to contact you in connection with your role at Anthropic.	These recipients will use your personal information to communicate with you in connection with our relationship or prospective relationship with them. The lawful basis we rely on for such transfers is that the processing is necessary for our and the third party's legitimate interests, namely managing our contractual or other relationship or prospective relationship.
Law enforcement, government bodies, regulators and other parties for legal reasons: we may share your personal information with third parties as required by law or if we reasonably believe that such action is necessary to (i) comply with the law and/or reasonable requests of law enforcement; (ii) detect and investigate illegal activities and breaches of agreements; and/or (iii) exercise or protect the rights, property, or safety of Anthropic, our Team Members or others.	These recipients will use your personal information in the performance of their regulatory or law enforcement role, or to advise us in connection with a potential claim or regulatory enforcement action. The lawful basis we rely on for sharing personal information with these recipients is that the processing is either necessary to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject or is necessary for our legitimate interests, namely enforcing our rights or complying with requests from regulatory authorities.

11. Storing And Transferring Your Personal Information

- 11.1 Security. We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, change or damage. All personal information we collect will be stored on secure servers. Where we transfer personal information to our service providers, we will ensure that the recipients also implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect your personal information.
- 11.2 International Transfers of your Personal Information. The personal information we collect may be transferred to and stored in countries outside of the jurisdiction you are in where we and our third-party service providers have operations. We will ensure that these international transfers of your personal information are made pursuant to appropriate safeguards, such as:
- (a) ensuring that the personal information is only transferred to countries recognised as offering an equivalent level of protection as compared to the level of protection in the country you are located ("Adequacy"); or

- (b) the transfer is made pursuant to agreements incorporating standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission and approved under the UK Data Protection Act 2018 ("SCCs").

11.3 Your personal information may be processed by recipients in the following countries:

Destination Country	Safeguard used
USA	Standard Contractual Clauses
UK	Adequacy (EU)
EU	Adequacy (UK)

11.4 If you wish to enquire further about the safeguards we use, including obtaining a copy of any SCCs that we have entered into, please contact the Legal team using the contact details in paragraph 3 of this privacy notice.

12. Your Rights in Respect of Your Personal Information

12.1 In accordance with applicable privacy law, you have the following rights in respect of your personal information that we hold:

- (a) Right of access. You have the right to obtain:
- (i) confirmation of whether, and where, we are processing your personal information;
 - (ii) information about the categories of personal information we are processing, the purposes for which we process your personal information and information as to how we determine applicable retention periods;
 - (iii) information about the categories of recipients with whom we may share your personal information including the identities of all other data fiduciaries and data processors with whom the personal data has been shared along with the description of the personal data as shared; and
 - (iv) a copy of the personal information we hold about you.
- (b) Right of portability. You have the right, in certain circumstances, to receive a copy of the personal information you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format that supports re-use, or to request the transfer of your personal information to another person.
- (c) Right to rectification. You have the right to obtain rectification of any inaccurate or incomplete personal information we hold about you without undue delay.
- (d) Right to nominate: You have the right to nominate any other individual who can exercise your rights in the event of your death or incapacity.
- (e) Right to withdraw consent: Where you have provided your consent to the collection, processing, and/or transfer of your personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent. If you decide to withdraw your consent, we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose unless we identify an alternative legal basis.

- (f) Right to erasure. You have the right, in some circumstances, to require us to erase your personal information without undue delay if the continued processing of that personal information is not justified.
- (g) Right to restriction. You have the right, in some circumstances, to require us to limit the purposes for which we process your personal information if the continued processing of the personal information in this way is not justified, such as where the accuracy of the personal information is contested by you.

12.2 Right to object. You also have a right, in some circumstances, to object to any processing based on our legitimate interests. There may, however, be compelling reasons for continuing to process your personal information, and we will assess and inform you if that is the case.

12.3 If you wish to exercise one of these rights, please contact the Legal team, using the contact details at paragraph 3 of this privacy notice.

12.4 We will not charge you a fee for complying with your request to exercise one of these rights, other than where the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive (such as if you submit a number of repeated requests), in which case we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover our administrative costs.

12.5 You also have the right to lodge a complaint to your local data protection supervisory authority. For more information, please contact your local data protection authority.
